JUNE 2020

What's the latest news?

There's a new go-live date for Workday Financials: July 1, 2022. Read more here.

Using the blueprints we developed from the Architect sessions, we're constructing configuration workbooks for the first version of UVA's Workday Financials tenant. After that comes at least two rounds of testing with our end users. Read more on the blog.

The first RAPID decision was made: We chose Workday Expenses after collecting your input. Read more about the decision here.

Adaptive Insights Implementation

Adaptive Insights (AI) is transitioning from the pilot phase to implementation. FST project executive sponsors prioritized AI implementation to provide schools and units more robust budgeting capabilities. The FST AI and training teams are supporting schools and units during the transition – check the FST webpage for details on resources and office hours.
